Official Form 309A (For Individuals or Joint Debtors)Notice of Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Case

12/17

For the debtor(s) listed above, a case has been filed under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. An order for relief has been entered.

This notice has important information about the case for creditors, debtors, and trustees, including information about the meeting of creditors and deadlines. Read both pages carefully.

The filing of the case imposed an automatic stay against most collection activities. This means that creditors generally may not take action to collect debts from the debtors or the debtors' property. For example, while the stay is in effect, creditors cannot sue, garnish wages, assert a deficiency, repossess property, or otherwise try to collect from the debtors. Creditors cannot demand repayment from debtors by mail, phone, or otherwise. Creditors who violate the stay can be required to pay actual and punitive damages and attorney's fees. Under certain circumstances, the stay may be limited to 30 days or not exist at all, although debtors can ask the court to extend or impose a stay.

The debtors are seeking a discharge. Creditors who assert that the debtors are not entitled to a discharge of any debts or who want to have a particular debt excepted from discharge may be required to file a complaint in the bankruptcy clerk's office within the deadlines specified in this notice. (See line 9 for more information.)

To protect your rights, consult an attorney. All documents filed in the case may be inspected at the bankruptcy clerk's office at the address listed below or through PACER (Public Access to Court Electronic Records at www.pacer.gov).

The staff of the bankruptcy clerk's office and the office of the U.S. Trustee cannot give legal advice.

To help creditors correctly identify debtors, debtors submit full Social Security or Individual Taxpayer Identification Numbers, which may appear on a version of this notice. However, the full numbers must not appear on any document filed with the court.

Do not file this notice with any proof of claim or other filing in the case. Do not include more than the last four digits of a Social Security or Individual Taxpayer Identification Number in any document, including attachments, that you file with the court.

10. Proof of claim	No property appears to be available to pay creditors. Therefore, other than claims secured by a security interest in the principal residence, please do not file a proof of claim now. If it later appears that assets are available to pay creditors, the clerk will send you another notice telling you that you may file a proof of claim and stating the deadline. Deadline for holder(s) of a claim secured by a security interest in the principal residence pursuant to Rule 3002(c)(7)(A): Filing deadline: 70 days after the order for relief is entered.
11. Creditors with a foreign address	If you are a creditor receiving a notice mailed to a foreign address, you may file a motion asking the court to extend the deadlines in this notice. Consult an attorney familiar with United States bankruptcy law if you have any questions about your rights in this case.
12. Exempt property	The law allows debtors to keep certain property as exempt. Fully exempt property will not be sold and distributed to creditors. Debtors must file a list of property claimed as exempt. You may inspect that list at the bankruptcy clerk's office or online at www.pacer.gov . If you believe that the law does not authorize an exemption that the debtors claim, you may file an objection. The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive the objection by the deadline to object to exemptions in line 9.
13. Debtors	Duty to complete Financial Management Course and File Certificate: The Personal Financial Management Course must be completed and Official Form 423 (Certification About a Financial Management Course) must be filed within 60 days after the first date set for your section 341(a) meeting, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1007(c). Please note: You will not receive your discharge and your case will be closed without entry of a discharge, if you do not file the form within the required time allotted. If you fail to file the Certification About a Financial Management Course and your case is closed, you will be required to file a Motion to Reopen the Case to allow for filing of the Certification, paying required fees, if any become due, applicable to either the reopening of the case or filing of the motion.
